Greetings fellow Members,
Hope everyone is doing well. Congratulations to those who received 1st and 2nd place for the Fabric Swap challenge. For our October 10th meeting, we need to cut out more heart bags-- I found a stash of fabric donated for the bags, so please bring scissors and or cutting mat/rotary cutter. In November, we will have our annual election for officers. We will also be sewing the heart bags. You will need to bring your sewing machine, notions, and white thread. The heart bags will be given to Leah’s Baskets at our January meeting. In December, we will have our annual potluck dinner. We are also donating items for the Salvation Army Women's shelter--please bring your donations at our December meeting.

We have been busy planning our meetings for 2020. (See calendar on the first page of this newsletter)
See you at the October meeting!!

Neighborhood Groups

The Happy Sewers
The Happy Sewers neighborhood group meets the third Friday of each month in members homes at 10:00 am. Please call Jana Burgess at 405-652-9473 and leave a message for location and program information. Visitors are always welcome.

Southside Scissor Wizards
Southside Scissor Wizards neighborhood group meets the first Tuesday of each month. We normally meet at B Sew-Inn, SW 74th street and Pennsylvania Ave at 10:00 am. Please call 405-652-9473 and leave message for Jane Brown for any updates on location and program. Visitors are always welcome. FYI after our group meeting is over you can use B Sew-Inn’s sewing room for the remainder of the day unless they have a special event planned.

Have you ever asked yourself why join a neighborhood group?

Who doesn’t want to talk about their sewing obsession, share their latest projects. If your non-sewing friends get a glazed look in their eyes when you talk about your latest fabric score or your embroidery triumph, then you need to find a sewing group, Here are just a few more ideas why you should join one.

A. A place to develop skills. Many are based on the premise of continuous learning new monthly projects to work on and include the tradition of “show and tell” so much fun to see how each member’s creativity and personality showed up in the last month’s project. All members are happy to help if someone would like assistance with a particular technique.

B. Giving Back. If you are interested in helping in your community many sewing groups or individual members are involved in making thing for charity organizations, great place to learn what’s needed in your community.

C. Learn about new resources. Members love to share where to find out about new resources for fabrics, craft supplies and patterns, whether it’s an undiscovered fabric store to a new pattern or online sites.

D. Get feedback or a critique. Want some constructive criticism of a sewing project? Sewing groups are great places to get the feedback you need. That’s especially true when garment sewing, getting help and ideas for fit problems is priceless. Getting input from sewing friends can help save a project your ready to trash.

E. Get suggestions for special fabrics or quilt fabric scraps. Your fellow sewing group members can help you brain-storm just what to do with a special fabric, fabric scraps or craft project leftovers you have been treasuring for ages. We love to share our ideas and you’ll go home with dozen new ideas to use.

F. Fun. Communicating with like-minded fanatics to discuss all things sewing, embroidery, and crafting. Neighborhood groups are a warm and happy place to stretching yourself with new challenges. I always leave a meeting with renewed energy, there’s always something to learn when it comes to all things sewing.
Spotlight on Claire Kennedy

Claire's passion for sewing started at an early age (her sophomore high school prom dress on the left), but she had to wait almost 30 years before she could finally see the fulfillment of her dreams: to learn as much about sewing as possible.

Always having an affection for fashion made sewing all that more important and eager to learn the most information and skill possible. Claire finally got her chance to learn her skill from a local designer/dressmaker, Erma Roberts. Erma had gone to Parsons and came back to Oklahoma City and went to work at Wayne Russell Fabrics in downtown Oklahoma City sewing for all the major well-dressed ladies of the city. In her later years she taught and this is how Claire met her. In Claire's first class with Erma, she brought a blouse pattern with collar band, collar, front placket, set-in sleeve cuff and sleeve placket. Claire finished that in 3 sessions and asked if Erma would teach her how to make a coat. A fellow student in the class had beautiful fabrics from New York, and purchasing some fashionable wool plaid in the style of Ralph Lauren at the top, Claire had her first coat.

As you can tell - Claire was overjoyed with the results. On the right is a photo of the typical Ralph Lauren large plaid coat, but it was in shades of blue which never suited Claire's coloring. Fast-forward 10 years and the local economy was in shambles, so Claire decided this was a perfect time to start her own business - huh? Actually, it was time for her to go back to work, and there was a choice of working in an office or doing what she loved. One day she was at one of her friend's home for a party and her friend asked if Claire would make her daughter's debutante dress....and a company was born!

One of her most challenging clients, was a beautiful girl wanting a strapless debutante dress. She had surgery during the summer to correct the scoliosis that was developing so badly that if she didn’t have the surgery, the twist in her spine would crush her lungs and kill her by age 30. She would have a scar the whole length of her back. Claire finished the dress and as you can see she looked gorgeous and had a very special evening.

An heirloom wedding gown worn three generations, which Claire restored for the third generation wearing. A gown based on a Monique Lhullier gown designed for this bride. At the photography shoot was one of Lhullier's designers and remarked how beautifully detailed the gown was.

Poly Nichols when she was inducted into the Oklahoma Hall of Fame in one of Claire’s designs.

Here is Claire with her cousin, Jack Kilpatrick, when he was inducted into the Oklahoma Hall of Fame.

Claire wore her rendition of Yves St. Laurent’s Le Smoking, which was way more comfortable and flattering than the one she could have bought! YSL was one of Claire’s favorite designers and when the perfume Opium came out, she fell in love with the dress and the perfume.

Cathy Keating in one of her inaugural ball gowns that Claire designed for her.

About 7 years ago, another opportunity to widen her horizons appeared at her door to sew costumes for music videos being produced in Oklahoma City through Ackerman-McQueen.

About nine years ago, Claire approached John Ramsey about teaching at Bernina. They agreed to try it for a while and see how things went! Classes started and pretty soon people from around the country were signing up for her classes, then people from around the world. This was the formation of SewingArtistry.com her teaching site where students from all over the world come to learn about sewing, fitting, flattering their sizes, shapes and styles. Claire has come full turn, and her passion for fashion and fitting each student to their own style, shape and size is her favorite thing to teach. The skill that she has enjoyed for 40 years she can now pass on to her students. You can subscribe to her free weekly sewing email at sewingartistry.com.

Today, Claire sees clients and writes for her site SewingArtistry in her studio in Oklahoma City. She sews with 5 Berninas, 930 (to teach on and this is the machine she learned on so has very fond memories), Bernette (for taking onsite when she does costumes for music videos or at weddings), 180 (the original embroidery machine), Bernette serger and her 790 (her main squeeze). Although Claire still designs for clients, her main passion and joy now comes from her teaching and passing on the knowledge of 40 years of sewing and fitting many different sizes and shapes. She has been a member of the Oklahoma City chapter of ASG for 4 years.

Membership Benefits
Sewing Classes and Special Events
Whether you’re new to sewing, returning to sewing, looking to advance your sewing skills or just want to participate in on virtual group meetings, you will find ASG’s free online sewing classes and programs a major benefit of membership.

Discounts
Many local retailers offer discounts to ASG members. Be sure to ask when you shop, "Do you offer an ASG discount?"
In addition, almost half of the advertisers in Notions, our quarterly publication, also regularly offer discounts on their sewing products, publications and events, free shipping, and lots more. Those Special Offers are listed and updated every quarter on the password-protected Members Only section of this Web site. Join now to receive your password, and take advantage of the great benefits of membership in the ASG!

Chapter Meetings
Think of a chapter as a community of people who are excited about sewing. All kinds of people! Some with advanced or professional sewing skills, some novices at the beginner level, and the majority who fall somewhere between those two levels. They want to learn new skills, they want sewing friends to share their successes and challenges, and they want to belong to a group that will support their adventures in sewing.
Chapters come in all sizes - larger chapters often sponsor quarterly chapter-wide special events that may feature local or national speakers, member fashion shows, or specialty workshops. Some chapters also sponsor many smaller neighborhood or special interest groups within the larger structure which meet more frequently (usually monthly). Smaller chapters may meet on a monthly basis as one group. Often, these local Neighborhood Groups provide opportunities for sharing ideas and “hands-on” sewing experiences in a smaller, more social atmosphere. Find a chapter in your area.

Conference
ASG members pay a special member’s price for conference registration where attendees participate in workshops and seminars taught by nationally recognized professionals. Members may also shop the Exhibit Hall, enjoy special events and attend optional workshops and tours. Visit our Conference page for more information.
ASG Chapters publish a newsletter 4-6 times a year that communicates local Chapter events, neighborhood group locations and activities, lists of discounts with retailers and features special interest articles.

Notions
Members receive regular ASG Notions emails with news, articles and more. In addition, most ASG Chapters publish a regular newsletter that communicates local Chapter events, neighborhood group locations and activities, lists of discounts with retailers and features special interest articles.
